

What next:

- On receiving this Disclosable Matter, the matter will be internally processed and investigated in line with the Policy.
- You may be contacted if any further information is required.
- You will be updated and kept informed of what action is being taken in response to your disclosure, including the progress and the outcome of any investigation.

Consent to disclose identity: Please note that The Benevolent Society will protect your identity in every practicable way. However, we need your consent to disclose your identity to relevant management personnel, advisors and authorities (if any) (together, Stakeholders) to process this Disclosable Matter.

By signing and sending this form, you consent to The Benevolent Society disclosing your identity to such Stakeholders (mentioned above).

..... (Sign here)

..... (Print Name)

Date:

PRIVACY COLLECTION NOTICE:

The Benevolent Society collects personal information about you in order to investigate and process your whistleblower disclosure and for purposes otherwise set out in our privacy policy at www.benevolent.org.au. The information you provide will be collected by or on behalf of us and may be disclosed to third parties that help us deliver our services or as required by law. If you do not provide this information we may not be able to fully process, investigate and/or respond to your alert. We do not disclose personal information overseas. However, we use cloud based data storage facilities and social media platforms that are located in the United States and Singapore. Our privacy policy explains: (i) how we store and use, and how we may access and correct your personal information; (ii) how you lodge a complaint regarding the handling of your personal information; and (iii) how we will handle any complaint. If you would like any further information about our privacy policy on www.benevolent.org.au or contact privacy@benevolent.org.au.