

Early Childhood Early Intervention (ECEI) Information for Early Childhood Partners

Use this form to record information about a child aged 0 to 6 years with developmental delay or disability who is seeking support through the NDIS.

Part 1 – General Information about ECEI

What is ECEI?

Early Childhood Early Intervention (ECEI) is funded by the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) and can offer a range of supports for children aged 0 to 6 years with developmental delay or disability and their families.

What is the aim of ECEI?

The aim of ECEI is to provide parents and families with the knowledge, skills and support to optimise their child's development and ability to participate in family, early childhood education and care settings, and in broader community life.

Who can benefit from ECEI?

A child aged 0 to 6 years who has either:

- a developmental delay which is the result of an impairment and causes substantial functional limitations and who requires a coordinated, multidisciplinary service response; or
- a disability

And

- lives in Logan and Redland LGA, Brisbane LGA, Moreton LGA

Further information regarding ECEI can be found at the following website:

<https://ndis.gov.au/ecei>

or email benevolent.ecei@ndis.gov.au or phone 1 300 00 ECEI/3234

Why complete this form?

The Early Childhood Partner will be the first contact point for families of children aged 0 to 6 years with developmental delay or disability seeking support through the NDIS. The Early Childhood Partner will discuss with families / carers / guardian the most appropriate supports that would benefit the child. This includes providing information and referral to other support services or organisations. Understanding that every child is different, the Early Childhood Partners will tailor the supports to the child and family's individual needs and circumstances.

There are 3 parts to this form:

- 1. General Information
- 2. Information Form – including mandatory consent section
- 3. Important Privacy Information

The types of supports that can be provided by a partner are:

- Information;
- Referral to mainstream or community services;
- The determination of appropriate supports and services to achieve outcomes for your child;
- Short term ECEI supports;
- Where required, assistance to access the NDIS.

This information form may be completed by:

- a family or carer, with the assistance of a professional

There are three steps to undertake in completing and lodging this form:

- 1. Complete the Early Childhood Partner information form (part 2 of this form) and record parent / carer / guardian consent
- 2. If consent is provided by the parent / carer / guardian, attach copies of any relevant assessments, reports or letters from health professionals that describe the child's needs in support of this information form where appropriate
- 3. Send the completed information form and any attachments to the ECEI Partner (see page 12 for the contact details of your ECEI Partner)

Part 2 – ECEI Information Gathering

This information assists the Early Childhood Partner to learn more about the child. Please provide information where appropriate and as agreed to by the child's family, carer or guardian.

Please read consent and privacy information on pages 8 through to 12 and seek signed consent where indicated.

The Benevolent Society Privacy Policy

You are providing personal information to The Benevolent Society ABN 95 084 695 045 (we, us or our).

Who do we collect your personal information from? We generally collect your personal information directly from you. However, in some cases, we may receive your personal information from a third party (for example from your guardian/carer and/or authorised representative, medical and other health providers, government agencies and other non-government service providers). In these cases, we will take reasonable steps to ensure you are aware that we have collected personal information about you and the circumstances of the collection.

Why do we collect your personal information? We collect your personal information to:

- provide you with information and updates about our services.
- assess your eligibility for our services and determine how we can best help you.
- provide our services to you and in some instances, this will include health services.
- research, monitor and evaluate our services so we can continue to improve the quality and outcomes of our services as well as develop new services.
- advocate for the improvement of service quality and outcomes.
- meet our funding, professional and legal obligations in providing you with our services.
- process and respond to any complaint made by you.
- provide information to third parties as authorised or required by law.

Some of the information we collect is to satisfy our legal obligations including in some circumstances to enable us to discharge our duty of care. Laws governing or relating to our operation may also require certain information to be collected and disclosed, for example, child protection, mental health, and health or ageing laws.

What would happen if we didn't collect your personal information? Without your personal information we may not be able to provide the full scope of our services to you, respond to your complaint, improve our service to meet your needs and/or meet our funding, professional and legal obligations.

Who are the types of bodies and persons to whom we usually disclose your personal information? To achieve the best possible outcomes for your individual circumstances, we collaborate with others. In doing so, your personal information may be disclosed to:

- other government and non-government service providers to assist them in providing services to you
- medical and/or other health providers (including members of your treatment team, such as health providers involved in your diagnosis, care or treatment for any particular episode of care) to assist them in providing services to you and to the extent necessary to improve or maintain the individual's health or manage a disability
- our funders and regulators

- our affiliates, subsidiaries and other related companies, and
- external professional individuals or organisations, in circumstances where a TBS employee is subject to external professional supervision or peer review.

We will only disclose your personal information as set out in this notice and our privacy policy or to third parties as authorised or required by law or a court/tribunal order. In all other circumstances, we will disclose your personal information only with your prior consent.

Do we disclose your personal information overseas? We do not disclose personal information outside of Australia. However, we do use cloud based data storage services and social media platforms (like Facebook and LinkedIn) to facilitate our business activities, who store information overseas in the United States and Singapore.

Other useful information Our privacy policy contains information about how you may access and correct your personal information, as well as how to complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how we will deal with such a complaint. It also contains other useful information. Our privacy policy is available on our website at www.benevolent.org.au or email us at privacy@benevolent.org.au for a copy.
